Clocks Change Nov. 3: Practice Your Fire Drill!

If you assume you'd know what to do if a fire happens at home, listen to the Oct. 13 House Smarts podcast featuring Dr. Robert Cole, fire safety expert.

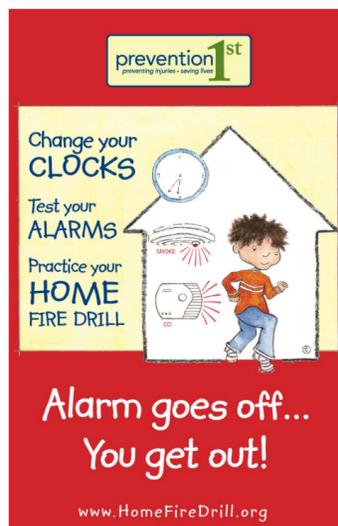

Lou Manfredini, the radio show's host, recalled a friend who had a fire on her stovetop: "She grabbed the pan to take it out of the house. All she did was spread the fire."

When the unexpected happens, like a fire or the smoke alarm going off in the middle of the night, would you remember what to do?

"Without having thought things through, people can make the wrong choices," said Dr. Cole. "We need to get people to think that a fire can happen to them, think about what they would do, and practice."

His most important tips:

Golf Tournament Raises $38,000

The 2018 Jane and Larry Glazer Memorial Golf Tournament to benefit Prevention 1st raised more than $38,000 to support key injury prevention programs.

This year's silent auction raised $455 for a new fund memorializing Stephen Rogoff, who along with Harvey Bunis conceived of, developed and co-chaired the Golf Tournament since its beginning in 2013. The inaugural Golf Tournament held in 2013 was Prevention 1st's first major fund raiser.

Our thanks and congratulations to Jessica Holly and Michael Chatwin, who will co-chair next year's event. Congratulations to our winning foursomes and outstanding golfers:
